To New York Foundation for Senior Citizens

Guardians and

Mr. Metroni, Esq.

from Helene Rajewsky Jan. 28, 2013.

My right foot became badly infected and required surgery as consequence of action of the employees of Landlord Steven Cronan.

On Nov. 27 in the morning officers at my door were demanding that I open the door, I telephoned to my guardian who said do not open I am coming over. They threatened to break the door saying we hear you, but we have to see you.

My neighbor Terry coming by said "Crack the door, Helen, I am here. I did. And immediately an iron bar was forced into door frame. I took my coat off the knob of the door and stepped out. Immediately I was harshly pushed into a quarry seat. I gave my keys to Terry and asked the officers to lock my door which they did. They gave the keys back to Terry.

17.2 I was terrified of what was happening as they carried me handcuffed down stairs into ambulance and to 68th street, I think to Cornell Presbyterian E.R. by 3pm I was released. It was raining, I walked to 67st Bus stop to I had enough change for car fare. I missed 2nd Ave transfer stop and had to walk back from 1st Ave, my shoes got wet and I had to stop several times I got so tired. My feet were painful rubbing against wet shoes. 2nd Ave Bus took me to Houston and Forsythe and I had to walk in wet shoes several more blocks, getting to 20 Prince at 6:15 pm. Super and MaryAnne were waiting for me with my keys in the lobby. When I came up I noticed that my right was raw and blood was on the sock from the friction of the wet shoe. In December I thought it was getting better, I am diabetic and healing is slow. On Wed. Jan 9 at the Bowery Mission Clinic they looked at my right foot put me on Cephalexin 500mg 2x day. I could not walk and Linda found for me home call paediatric Dr. Nau who saw me on W. Jan. 14 and told me immediate hospitalisation. At 6:32pm I took taxi to Beth Israel E.R. and was admitted. Dr. Nau said that the foot was gangrenous.

P. Here at hospital I had many tests
3. have been seen by many Doctors and on Friday Jan 25, 2013 had surgery, partial removal of infected bone. It financial hardship, much mental anguish and violation of my human rights, and civil rights by Janet and Jackie, employees of owner/land lord Steven Groman,
I am charged $1,000.- by Cornell hospital ambulance $400.- forth coming Beth Israel charges, and much pain and suffering.

Sincerely,
Helene Rajewsky
